As per the Commissioner of Higher Education Office rules during earlier years, it has been a tradition of the office to sanction new posts for the faculties to match with the workload in the college. The CHE office regularly asks the colleges all over the state to send the workload and their requirement for the teaching posts in different subjects to match the workload. The details of those papers indicating the required posts are as per links in data template. (The college was sanctioned new posts of Adhyapak Sahayak in April 2015. They are mentioned against 2014-15 in the template. These posts were filled by the end of calendar year 2015.)
