Policy of Scholarship and Freeship under

Poor Students' Relief Fund

From 2007, Poor Students' Relief Fund was established to provide financial assistance to those students who do not get any kind of government scholarship. Under this scheme, Students are selected as per merits under the keen observation of the Committee. The selected students from general category are given freeship as per the criteria's of the scheme. The College has played the role of sponsoring agency also because the Financial contribution is given by college staff and the donors from the society.
